

Spiderman 2.0

The first time your eye looks over at him you will see immediately that he is tall as a tree, with an almighty presence and as soon as you see his eyes you will never forget him. He never takes off his mask, which he wears even when sleeps . His fingers have web stretching out of his fingers . But he is not standing, he is climbing onto a tall skyscraper which is really shiny.

Spider man 2.0 wears a suit which changes colour when his enemy is nearby . You may think he's short but he is as tall as a tree with really pointy fingers which are coated with bits of really sticky spider webs. His eyes are sky blue. No one dares to look him the eye because he can find out all your information with just one look and can receive any data or messages from over 10 miles away. He has a personality as soft as butter. When I mean soft as butter, he understands everyone quickly and will try to help anyone. He never tells anyone about his back story because he doesn't want their pity.
