

Hargreeves

Hargreeves has black, smooth silky hair and blue eyes. He looks nothing like his siblings as he was adopted as a baby by Sir. Reginald Hargreeves.

He wears dusty, old-looking full school uniform. His hair is as black as the night and his eyes are a dark pool of water full of curiosity. His school uniform looking very old and dusty. His life is full of mysteries. He is also a bit mysterious and doesn't like to talk to people about his problems, he wants to solve them himself. He isn't very social, he is rude to strangers who speak to him. He is very brave and saves the world from an apocalypse, twice.

He teleports in a blink of an eye, like a blinding blue flash.

He can use his power to get out of a dilemma. He could teleport out of the place where the problem is or go back in the past to avoid it

When my character uses his power, a blinding blue energetic light appears and zaps and when the light is gone, he disappears.

He doesn't normally teleport in front of people, and if he does, he does it in front on people who know about his power like his family or a secret organisation.

He doesn't like to socialise with other people that much. If he told them about his powers then they will get confused and just think he's weird.

His backstory is that when he was a teen he said he wanted to time-travel but he was too young, so he got mad that he couldn't. So, he time-travelled, but too far, so he got stuck in the future, which was destroyed and up in flames. He got stuck for more than 40 years and when he came back he was an old man stuck inside a teen's body.
