

Narant

My character is known for an amazing power. He is standing in the mountains near his village.

He looks something like Naruto, with the same power and blonde hair and he has the power to turn into an ant and into a giant. When he turns into a giant, he has different strengths with different powers and he is tall as 20 double decker buses with spikey hair that is the color of the sun. He has Hyūga eyes of 42 different types: each eye is his level of rage, turning into wolf eyes when he's furious.

Narant is a very helpful character even to his enemies when they are in trouble. When he's in the village, he will come back in the shape of a giant or ant so people won't be scared. He will be in 42 max rage mode if he is angry because someone died and when he is in the village, he will have a kind face even though he is angry. To his people he will be in a normal size, with the blue shining eye with cute spike blond hair. He will be able teleport, a skill that is known as the Flying Thunder God jitsu. His other amazing skill is duplicate jitsu - also known as the clone jitsu!
