

Imagined Character

Muscular and wearing a golden superhero suit, he has a super car called the jumbo Lambo. He has two hearts and can regenerate to a different form.

My superhero is half-gorilla, half-snake. His eyes shine red and when something bad happens, it's called the KSI tingle. He is the king of the jungle and can return to human form when he chooses. He is a boxer and in the ring, he is called the skull breaker. You don't want to mess with him, or he will eat you. Him favorite drink is villains' blood - yummy.
