

Spiderman

voker may look scary under his unusual face. However, you will be blown away by his amazing dark green curly hair and luscious pale skin. He wears a dark purple outfit so he can camouflage in the night. He has a one-of-a-kind silky black cape which is as dark as midnight which helps him become invisible in the enemy's eyes. His wand is called mystery because no-one can find a name for it. This unique object is overflowing with power, dotted with white and green which symbolising power, independence, heroïcness, and adventurousness.

My character looks like the Joker and Voldemort combined. voker's hair is as green as outdated spinach. His face is as discombobulated as Shrek's whole body. He seems evil and looks evil, but don't judge a book by its cover because you never know the nice guy may turn out to be bad.

He has mind reading powers, and he can do magic but he also has a killer instinct so don't make him angry, even though he is very calm. He survives by living in a cave and hunts for his own food and has been VERY INDEPENDENT since he was little. His cave is spacious or so that's what he thinks - he hunts every animal that come his way!

He can be very nice but don't get on his bad side, if you do, you wouldn't want to know. Most of the time he is nice by giving loads of things like knives.
